By the arrival of the British Queen we have a week's later intelligence from the other side of the Atlantic. At Liverpool American cotton had been in limited demand, and the market heavy, yet beliers were firm, and no material decline had taken place in prices. Our Havre letters have not yet been received, but the market which we copy from the English pages wates that on the week ending fit in prices were about the same as at the close of the week. the English papers states that on the week ending 6th inst.

L' Lenry & Co., Nos. 4 and 5 Astor House, New York, Hatters, will introduce on Wednesday, the 21st inst, a new and elegant article of gentlemen's Black Fur Hats, at $5,622 each, in explanation of which we submit the following remarks.

Since the origin of our establishment, we have had in view, and have strictly adhered to three distinct purposes in our manufactures, viz : Economy in price, Improvement of quality and taste, and the perfecting a STANDARD OF FASHIONS FOR THE UNITED STATES, independent of the European, all of which have been successfully effected, resulting in a most important saving to the community at large, and an equally satisfactory remuneration to ourselves, consequent upon the extensive patronage which we have reserved.

Our improved FIVE DOLLAR HATS, so superior in material, elegance of style and perfect finish, that immediately upon their introduction, they became not only preeminent at home, but celebrated in London and Paris, and elicited the highest encomiums of the Press there, soon superseded the $10 Hats previously worn here by the first class of our citizens. This article, now fully established as the highest standard, is so extensively known and universally approved by the fashionable and genteel wearers and true economists, that we will not now allude further to its merits, except to announce that we have improved its beauty and value the present season beyond any that we have heretofore produced.

At the urgent solicitations of many of our customers, who were anxious to economise in the first cost, and yet desirons to avail themselves of the peculiar style and finish characteristic of our fabrics, we have for some time past made diligent efforts to accomplish their wishes, and consequently have just perfected the new article of Hats as announced above. They will be composed of superior materials, the workmanship will be of the first order, and although fully equal to Hats formerly retailed at $6 and $7, they will be sold at $3,622 each, a price not only commensurate to the present pecuniary depression, and far less than their intrinsic worth, but infinitely cheaper, when the respective qualities are compared, than any which have ever before been offered to the public.

Purchasers are assured, in advance, that these Hats will not incur the objection, viz: " dear at the price," currently argued against most low priced goods. LEARY & CO. Astor House, Sept. 15th, 1342. s26 6tis

I Hats of the Fall Style are now ready. [The model for the season is a slight modification of the prevailing Paris mode.] SPENCER'S Sales Room.

September 1st. Orlando Fish, Fashionable Hatter, 137 Broadway, would inform the gentlemen of New York that hi Fall and Winter style of Hats is now ready for their inspection and critical judgement. Claiming the distinction of having been the first to project and abide by a strictly AMERICAN style of Hats, instead of servilely copying the Fashions of Europe, which are often unsuited to our climate and manners, he rejoices to perceive that others have seen fit to follow his lead, and that now the following o European Fashions in Hats is almost entirely abandoned by the leading manufacturers.

He offers a Winter style of Gentlemen's Nutria Hats a $3 50, and warrants them equal in material, finish, fashion and durability to any Hat sold as low as $4 in the city. But he wishes it distinctly understood that his best Hats are not sold at this price, but at $1 50. These he recommends as equal to any hat sold in New-York at $5 or under, and challenges for them a comparison with any other.

Gentlemen visiting our city are respectfully invited to call and examine his new stock of Winter hats and judge of their quality. He is confident that, whether the cheapest or the best flat is desired, the inquirer will here be satisfied. Try him. (s20tf) O. FISH, 157 Broadway.

L' Spencer's Imitation Moleskin Hat. This popular article is commended to the public as pecu liarly desirable, at the present time, for its economy. For elegance and durability, it competes successfully with the most costly Hats worn. Price $3 25. SPENCER, al6 tf Fashionable Hatter, No. 245 Broadway.

To Warts! Marts! Marts!—FALL FASHION.—
The subscriber invites the attention of the Beau Monde to his beautiful, gracetul, and tasteful low bell-crowned Hat, being the only really fashionable article of the kind extant, though he cannot expect but imitators will spring up, and claim the benefit of his own original conceptions.

To average that suprass any thing of the kind in claim the benefit of his own original conceptions.

To say that these Hats surpass any thing of the kind in point of style, finish, and graceful appearance, is to claim no more than is warranted by an experience of twenty years in the business, and he invites gentlemen who study grace and fashion, to call and examine for themselves.

D' Fall Fashion Blats now ready-Watson's If Fall Fashion Blats now ready—Watson's Silk Hats, only $250, are recommended to the public not only for economy but as possessing all the elegance of contour of the most costly; combining utility with beauty; this article cannot (ait to commend listelf its the commoisseur as well as economist. Also, Moleskin Hats, at $3.50 each; these are his standard prices, and he need only remark that by confining himself to one quality and price for each description of hats, he is enabled to furnish a superior article at prices for below those at which Hats of the same description are now venting by other manufacturers.

A steady and permanent increase of patronage for the last 7 years is a sufficient indication of public judgement, and constitutes the best test of their merits. and constitutes the best test of their merits.

The Mercantile Agency.—This Agency was established June 1841, and is in successful operation. The number of subscribers has been steadily increasing from the convencement. A large number of the most respectable firms in the city have become subscribers. The object of the Agency is to procure information respecting the standing, responsibility, &c., of country merchants residing in the States of New-York, Ohio, Michigan, Inshans, Hilmais, the New-England States, New-Jersey, parts of Missouri and Penusylvania, and the Territories of Iowa and Wiscossin, for the benefit of merchants in the city of New-York who may become subscribers to the Agency. Experience has shown that this Agency—as conducted—has been highly useful, not only to the merchants of this city, but to bosest and solvent merchants in the country. Merchants are in-Mercantile Agency. This Agency was esuseful, not only to the merchants of this city, but to howest and solvent merchants in the country. Merchants are invited to call, when the Terms and Conditions will be made known to them. They can also make inquiries, without charge, to a sufficient extent to test the plan, and be well satisfied of the value of the information. It is believed that this Agency will be the means of saving to merchants in this city hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. Apply to LEWIS TAPPAN, corner of Hanover and 127 31 is. No. 334 Greenwich st. N. Y. DR. RUSH'S LEGACY.—That celebrated physician, Dr. Benjamin Rush, could not have lett a more valuable legacy to mankind than his invaluable HEALTH PILL. It is indeed a blessing to the afflicted, giving relief in all the usual cases of sudden illness or lingering disease with which humanity is distressed or the functions of life are destroyed. It is now conceded by the most eminent of the medical faculty, that the stomath is the seat or fourtain of all disease; that it is, as it were, the centre from which proceed all the evils produced by foreign or irritating causes, and which thence spread to every part of the animal system.

The proper method of cure, therefore, is to attack the cit-adel in which the disease intrenches itself; and no com-bination of medical agents has yet been discovered so effibination of medical agents has yet been discovered so efficacious for this purpose as the preparation of the late Dr.
Rish, and which, from the universal success attending their administration, during a practice of nearly half a century, were styled his "Infallible Health Pill." Their great virtue is, that they arrest disease in its first approach. They are preventives as well as remedies; and we will venture to say that it taken by persons when they are first affected with symptoms of illness, many a case, that is either serious or fatal, might be avoided.

Mr. Charles Dyer, Jr.:

My Dear Sir-Your communication of yesterday, asking my opinion of Dr. Starkweather's Hepsitic Elixir, has been received this morning. In reply, I will inform you that my confidence in patent medicines generally is not very flattering. I have had too much reason to believe that unprincipled men will often palm upon their fellow-citizens their nseless, if not dangerous nostrums for the sake of gain, the use of which takes up that important and critical period of time without producing any good effect, when otherwise perhapt proper remedies would have been used, and much suffering and distress prevented. For that reason I have not used them, feeling myself and family to be rouch safer under the direction of my family physicians; but having been afflicted for the last sixyears with difficulties in the side and chest, uncomfortable and often distressing, painful, and somewhat alarming, and from which I could get only temory relief, I very fortunately noticed your advertisement of the medicine in question.

I had been a school-boy with Dr. Starkwenther, and had with him a long and intimate acquaintance when we were

I had been a school-boy with Dr. Statkweather, and had with him a long and intimate acquaintance when we were young men, and from my knowledge of him I thought him, incapable of practising deception on any person; this fact induced me to try Dr. Starkweather's Hepatic Elixir, and by its use I now believe myself entirely cured.

I need not, therefore, say to you that I consider it of great volue. I certainly think is discovery of great public importance.

The first bottle I took gave me much rellef, ward regularly progressed until I hod taken six bottles, ward I discontinued it, having, thank God, so further use by at at present.

With much regard and respect.

Your ob't and humble servant.
